

SCHOOL SUPPORT NOTICE
 PROTESTANT SEPARATE INDIVIDUAL
 School Act, Section 156

The personal information collected in this form is collected pursuant to the provisions of S. 3(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act RSA 2000, cF-25 and relevant provisions of the School Act RSA cS-3 dealing with the assessment of property for the purposes of assessing property taxes accordingly. Should you have any questions regarding this activity, please contact the relevant municipal official in your local Municipal office.

(For property owned by individuals)
 All individuals who own property located in a municipality where both a public school district and a Protestant separate school district exist are required to file this notice when a property is acquired. An individual may file a notice at any subsequent time.

Consistent with the Constitution Act, 1982 (Canada), the School Act provides:

1. That individuals who are Protestant must direct their taxes in support of schools to the Protestant separate school district. A Protestant is defined as an individual who is Christian and does not recognize the Pope as head of the Church.
2. That all other individuals must direct their taxes in support of schools to the public school district.
3. Where 2 or more individuals (where 1 or more is Protestant) own property, they must direct their taxes in support of schools to the public school district and the Protestant separate school district in proportion to their ownership. Joint owners are deemed to own the property in equal shares, e.g. two property owners, one Protestant and the other one is not: 50% Public, 50% Separate; or three property owners all having equal shares, one Protestant, and the other two are not: 66.7% Public, 33.3% Separate.

FACTS SHEET

- In the Town of Innisfail, or in a portion of the municipality, both a public and a Protestant separate school district exist in the same area.
- When property is sold, the purchaser is required to file with the Town of Innisfail this School Support Notice.
- In addition, property owners can at any time file a new School Support Notice or change an existing School Support Notice.
- A School Support Notice filed by a property owner is effective in the taxation year following the year in which the School Support Notice is filed.
- Individual property owners who are Protestant must direct their property taxes to the Protestant separate school district.
- Individual property owners who are not Protestant must direct their taxes to the public school district. A Protestant is defined as an individual who is Christian and does not recognize the Pope as head of the Church.
- Only property owners, not tenants, are entitled to file this School Support Notice.
- If property is owned by a Protestant and a non-Protestant, the municipality will assign the taxes to the public and Protestant separate school districts in accordance with the percentage of ownership indicated beside the name of each owner.
- In order to ensure that property taxes are directed correctly, it is important that all property owners are designated on the School Support Notice and that the percentage of ownership adds up to 100%.
- If there is insufficient space to list all the registered property owners and to make the necessary declarations on the front of this School Support Notice, please use an extra sheet to indicate the name, address, declaration and percentage of ownership of the additional registered property owners.
- This School Support Notice applies to all property within the Town of Innisfail owned by individuals whether or not the property owners reside in Innisfail.
- If this School Support Notice is not returned to the municipality, the individual owners' property would be assessable for public school purposes and the taxes on such property will be directed to the Alberta School Foundation Fund and redistributed on an equal amount per student to public and separate school boards in Alberta.
- Because the Constitution Act establishes Alberta's public and separate school systems on the basis of religion (either Protestant or Roman Catholic) school boards and tax collecting authorities are allowed and required to ask for the declaration contained in this form.
